SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 3 years.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.

Pursuant to Public Law 108-405, Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004, the defendant shall submit to DNA collection while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not use or possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapons or destructive device. Supervised release shall be revoked for possession of a firearm.

The defendant shall make special assessment and restitution payments as ordered by the Court and is required to notify the Court, through the Probation Office, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to meet these monetary obligations.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court (set forth on the following page). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Officer for substance abuse treatment, which may include testing to determine whether he has reverted to the use of controlled substances. As part of that condition, the defendant shall become an active member of Narcotics Anonymous immediately upon his release from custody. Within thirty days of release, he shall obtain a sponsor and shall sign any necessary releases to permit communication between his sponsor and his supervising U.S. Probation Officer. The frequency of attendance shall be determined by his clinician and supervising officer. Failure to attend shall be deemed a material violation of supervised release.

The defendant shall abstain from alcohol use or possession and is prohibited from entering establishments whose chief source of income is derived from the sale of alcohol.

The defendant shall participate in a mental health evaluation and follow the recommendation of said evaluation.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
